Homeless Shelters – Basic Guidelines When Opening Your Church

While your church may not sponsor a homeless shelter, your church may open up your facilities in the event of inclement weather or a catastrophe. In opening up your facility, it is important to research the local ordinances around shelters, even temporary shelters. It is also important to work with the Church staff and volunteers as to the responsibility they have in working with the homeless.

Guests entering your facility should be treated with respect. However, they need to be informed of any ground rules the Church may have, as well as the Church staff and volunteers. Guidelines the Church may develop and communicate to guests could be:

- ★ Hours of operation
- ★ Registration procedures
- ★ Appropriate clothing
- ★ No alcohol or drug usage or being under the influence upon entry
- ★ No weapons
- ★ No abusive threatening or profane language or actions
- ★ No stealing or damage to another guest, volunteer or staff member
- ★ No pets unless the pet is a service dog
- ★ No disposal of personal belongings or human waste on property

Many of the staff and volunteers within the Church may not have worked with homeless guests. Here are some of the basics in working with homeless guests:

- ★ Allow the homeless guests to own their successes and their failures.

- ★ It is imperative to maintain order and discipline at all times.
- ★ Encourage the homeless guests and to make healthy and life giving decisions without directing or leading them.
- ★ Allow homeless guests to experience their feelings while assisting them in the appropriate ways to express those feelings.
- ★ Show compassion. One need not have experienced the actual pain of a situation in order to understand what the individual is going through, trust your intuition.
- ★ Allow the homeless guests to explore options and come up with solutions to their problems without feeling the need to fix their problems for them.

When staff or volunteers are interfacing with homeless guests, please remember TO:

- ★ Smile, be positive.
- ★ Be a good listener.
- ★ Look everyone in the eyes and think of how to make each guest feel special.
- ★ Have fun and enjoy the good in everyone.
- ★ Visit with the guests during their time in the shelter; show hospitality.
- ★ Provide the guests with the dignity and respect that they do not receive during the day.

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

Luke 4:18-19 (NIV)

When staff or volunteers are interfacing with homeless guests, please remember to NOT:

- ★ Give out your last name, address, telephone number, or other personal identification to the guests.
- ★ If you have youth volunteers, remind the volunteers to not give out their school name or wear clothes with the school logo.
- ★ Advise guests when the volunteer is next scheduled to work.
- ★ Provide transportation for guests.
- ★ Carry money with you to the site.
- ★ Lend money to guests.
- ★ Provide medication of any type (even aspirin).
- ★ Take personal laundry home for guests.
- ★ Clean up any bodily fluids, especially blood, unless you are wearing the necessary personal protective equipment (PPE), and have been trained in bloodborne pathogens.
- ★ Secure employment for guests.
- ★ Allow the guests to attach themselves to the volunteer, creating differentiation.
- ★ Ask probing or personal questions.
- ★ Purchase items for or from guests.
- ★ Socialize outside of the shelter environment.
- ★ Contact a referral agency on behalf of a guest.
- ★ Participate in promoting religious beliefs during site operation.

If youth volunteer with the homeless shelter, it is important for them to work side-by-side with adult staff or volunteers, and not be left alone with the guests. Adult staff or volunteers should be supervising the youth volunteers at all times. It is also important that signed parental approval by a parent or guardian be submitted to the Church, prior to the youth volunteering in the shelter.

It is important for your church to determine how your facility will be used for homeless guests. Ask yourself about what your church wants to do. Does your church wish to simply supply shelter, or provide meals and laundry service as well? Either way, these are some basic steps for your church to utilize when developing a homeless shelter program, or simply opening up your facility during inclement weather.

PACT is an all-lines property & casualty (including Workers' Compensation) nonprofit captive reinsurer domiciled in the District of Columbia and owned by its member Annual Conferences and agency insureds. The General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) fulfills its Book of Discipline fiduciary oversight through its membership on the Board of Directors of PACT. For more information, contact the PACT Service Center or go to the website at www.umcpact.org.

The Ministry Protection Memo (MPM) series is offered as an educational tool in support of PACT's property and casualty insurance program to help you develop loss control procedures to suit your specific needs. With these publications, PACT does not seek to establish a particular standard of care or to provide legal advice. We encourage church leaders to consult with competent attorneys with regard to their specific loss control needs. PACT encourages reproduction and distribution of this MPM within the United Methodist denomination. Non-United Methodist groups may contact the PACT Service Center in writing at the Gallagher Centre, Two Pierce Place, Itasca, IL 60143 or via telephone at 877-UMC-PACT for permission to reproduce this memo.
